I asked the pupil if she could think of another similarity between Hindu and Muslim worship. She said:

‘Yes Muslims use a tasbih to know about Allah's characteristics, that represents Allah.’

I asked ‘What's a tasbih?’

She said: ‘

‘A tasbih is a bead where Muslims count the beads and remember the names and those names represent characteristics but also Hindus use a mala and the hands, use a mala for praying and meditating, the same, and it helps them focus on Brahman.’
